Schedules K-1, Partner's Share of Income, Deductions, and Credit, etc. have been mailed to all members of IHP.

Feature Physician of the Month: Linqiu Zhou

Meet Dr. Zhou, IHP's first feature physician of the month. Dr. Zhou's practice, Professional Pain Associates, is located at 730 N. Broad St. in Woodbury.

Dr. Zhou completed an orthopaedic residency and spine fellowship in China before moving to the United States. He worked for several years as a visiting scholar at MCP Hahnemann before completing his second residency in PM&R at the University of Pennsylvania. After that, he received his pain fellowship training at Thomas Jefferson University.

Dr. Zhou is board certified by the American Board of PM&R, and is also board certified in Pain Management. Dr. Zhou has extensive experience with the diagnosis and treatment of spinal and musculoskeletal disorders, and various pain syndromes, including cancer pain and headache.

Dr. Zhou is known for his great bedside manner and has received numerous awards including "America's Top Physician in Pain Management" and "Best in Medicine".

Don't Forget to Sign Up for HQEP (Gain Sharing)

If you do inpatient work in one of the Inspira facilities, you're eligible for the Hospital Quality and Efficiency Program. Specialists and primary care physicians have opportunity to earn dollars for achievement of quality improvement and cost reduction.

Physicians must "opt in" to the program by completing the attached one-page election form. Credit will be given for cases on or after January 1, 2018 if the Election Form is received by March 31, 2018. Thereafter, credit will be given for cases for the quarter after the date the Election Form is received.

Please return as soon as possible to ensure you take advantage of opportunities to share savings!
